

HB Reavis' Stanislaw Frnka recognised for his leadership skills in Hall of Fame Awards 2017

Stanislaw Frnka, HB Reavis' Country CEO for Poland, has been awarded with the "Best of the Best Leadership" title at the Hall of Fame (HOF) Awards 2017 organised by CIJ Europe, a leading real estate news provider across Central and South Eastern Europe. Running for the second year, the awards judging panel comprises of top real estate experts including CEOs, Directors as well as CIJ readers. The prize is a recognition for another successful year for HB Reavis, that has strengthened its position in both the Polish and European commercial real estate market.

"I'm very honored to be awarded with such a prestigious title and I want to take this opportunity to say thank you to the Polish team that has worked incredibly hard to make HB Reavis the forward thinking and innovative organisation it is today. The award is a true testament to the team's commitment and also an incentive to continue all our efforts to deliver even better services and buildings," Stanislaw Frnka, Country CEO for Poland at HB Reavis said.

Stanislaw Frnka has worked for HB Reavis Group since 2006. He was appointed to his current position in 2011 and is responsible for company's impressive growth in Warsaw and Poland, where one third of HB Reavis' entire operations are located today. HB Reavis' work spaces in Warsaw have in only a few years successfully attracted numerous leading local and international clients. In addition, in 2016 the developer started work on Varso Place – a 140 000 sq m flagship investment in the heart of capital city featuring one of Europe's tallest towers.

Nominees of 2017 HOF (Hall of Fame) Awards included winners of CIJ Awards from Poland, Czech Republic, Hungary, Romania, Serbia and Slovakia. Winners have been chosen by jury votes of over 600 property experts from across Europe.
